

HANDBOOK ON LEGAL REASONING AND COGNITIVE SCIENCE

List of confirmed contributors and topics

Josep Aguiló (University of Alicante)
Defeasibility in Law

Manuel Atienza (University of Alicante), Rafael Buzón (Universidad de Alicante)
An Approach to the Concept of "Defeasibility"

Carla Bagnoli (University of Modena and Reggio Emilia)
Particularism, Emotions, and Legal Reasoning

José Luis Bermúdez (Texas A&M University)
Human Reasoning as a Subject Matter of Empirical Inquiry

Anna Borghi (University of Roma La Sapienza & CNR), Stefania D'Ascenzo (University of Bologna), Luisa Lugli (University of Bologna), Corrado Roversi (University of Bologna), Michele Ubertone (University of Bologna), Caterina Villani (University of Bologna)
Embodied Cognition and Legal Concepts

Marco Brigaglia (University of Palermo), Bruno Celano (University of Palermo)
Defeasible Legal Reasoning, Normality, and Background Knowledge

Bartosz Brożek (Jagiellonian University Krakow)
Imagination and Legal Reasoning

Kristina Čufar (University of Ljubljana)
Dualistic Conception of Reason and Emotions: A Critical Perspective

Jordi Ferrer Beltrán (University of Girona), Carmen Vázquez Rojas (University of Girona)
Heuristics, Biases, and Legal Evidence

Daniel González Lagier (University of Alicante)
Defeasibility, Legal Reasoning and Cognitive Sciences

Miha Hafner (University of Ljubljana)
Emotion: A Legal Practitioner's Companion in Decision Making in Criminal Law

Jaap Hage (Maastricht University)
Constructivist Facts

Marek Jakubiec (Jagiellonian University Krakow)
Metaphorical Simulation and Legal Reasoning

Philip Johnson-Laird (Emeritus, Princeton University), Monica Bucciarelli (University of Turin)
Mental Models and Causation in the Law

Bartłomiej Kucharzyk (Jagiellonian University Krakow)
Legal Evidence in the Context of Epistemology and Psychology

Lukasz Kurek (Jagiellonian University Krakow)
Legal Reasoning and Mindreading

Francesca Lagioia (European University Institute)
AI and Legal Reasoning

Monika Leszczyńska (Maastricht University), Matthias van der Haegen (Maastricht University)
How Judges Reason with Recommender Systems: an Experimental Study

Enide Maegherman (Maastricht University)
Tunnel Vision Bias in Legal Reasoning, and what to do about it

Kody Moodley (Maastricht University), Rūta Liepiņa (Maastricht University)
Application of AI to Legal Reasoning

Susana Navas (University Autònoma Barcelona)
Algorithms and Law

Aleš Novak (University of Ljubljana)
From Confrontation to Interplay: Law and Emotions in Adjudication

Teresa Numerico (University of Rome 3)
AI and Human Reasoning: a Historical Perspective

Przemysław Pałka (Jagiellonian University Krakow)
Can we Have the Cake and Eat it? Squaring the Rule of Law Ideal with the Reality of Legal Reasoning

Francesca Poggi (University of Milano), Francesco Ferraro (University of Milan)
Ancestors: Empirical Approaches to Legal Reasoning in 20th Century Legal Theory

Philippe Rochat (Emory University), Nikita Agarwal (Emory University)
Normativity and normative reasoning: a developmental perspective

Corrado Roversi (University of Bologna)
The Construction of Legal Reality

Frederick Schauer (University of Virginia)
Generalizations in Law

Barbara Spellman (University of Virginia)
Reasoning about Forensic Science Evidence

Martin Stokhof (Emeritus, University of Amsterdam), Robert van Rooij (University of Amsterdam)
The Role of Language in Legal/Human Reasoning

Niek Strohmaier (Leiden University)
Biases in Legal Decision Making

Kevin Tobia (Georgetown University)
Experimental Jurisprudence and Legal Reasoning

Michele Ubertone (University of Bologna)
The Division of Cognitive Labor in Law

Antonia Waltermann (Maastricht University)
The Dual Challenge from AI and Cognitive Science for Law

Tomasz Zygmunt (Jagiellonian University Krakow)
Intuitive mechanisms in legal hard cases